

ROGERS MIDDLE SCHOOL/ROCKLAND HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING PROJECT

The project calls for the construction of a new middle school attached to the existing high school and complete renovation of the high school. Here are the highlights..

The new middle school will have: Full size gym with bleachers Oversized fully equipped Science labs for each teaching team (8 in total) 125 seat lecture hall, large shared media/library center Larger classrooms New furniture and equipment State of the art technology throughout

The renovated high school would have:

New windows, insulation and roof Completely renovated, air conditioned auditorium New gym floor and bleachers, large shared media/library center New plumbing, electrical and heating plant Fully renovated Science labs (removing accreditation issues) New furniture, equipment and state of the art technology New studio theater, completely renovated kitchen and cafeteria

Impact on the elementary schools:

Frees up space for specialist subjects and eventually full- time kindergarten At the end of the project all maintenance funding can be focused on the elementary schools Equipment and technology currently in the Middle and High School can move down to the elementary schools

What will it cost?

The total cost of the project is $86,032,496 The total admissible amount for reimbursement is $83,032,496 The reimbursement rate is 64.26% The towns contribution is $32,844,767 Impact on taxes (source: Eastern Bank) Amounts are per year and are not subject to the yearly 2.5% increase. This is a debt exclusion.

Year 1 $23 Year 2 $127 Year 3 $237 Year 4-25 $400